

El León Pequeño

Yo me llamo Timba y soy un león pequeño.
Vivo en un zoológico en Suiza.

Ellos son mi mamá y mi papá. Mi papá está durmiendo. Él duerme mucho.

Ella es mi hermana.
Me pegó en la nariz - iay!

Me gusta jugar con mi papá, pero creo que él me deja ganar.

Me gusta acostarme en el suelo y masticar cosas como este palo.

Estoy trepando
a un árbol.

Todavía no soy tan bueno para hacerlo...

Me da hambre después de jugar todo el día. Me gusta cenar con mi familia.

Mi mamá me baña después de la cena.
¡Cómo odio cuando tengo que bañarme!

The Mustard Seed Books project uses an open-source, Wikipedia-type strategy, leveraging public expertise to create and refine a set of high-quality books that support early reading development. All of the books and pictures are covered by the Creative Commons License (<http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc-sa/3.0/>) and are free to print, distribute, and modify for personal or educational use. The books are available at www.mustardseedbooks.org. New titles appear on a regular basis. If you have any ideas for books or would like to leave us any feedback, contact rick@mustardseedbooks.org.

Photos for these books come primarily from Flickr (www.flickr.com) and the Morgue File (www.morguefile.com). Both sites are great resources for high-quality publicly accessible photos and for aspiring photographers looking to share their work. Our aim with this series of books is to weave together two significant goals in the design of early reading materials—that the books are both instructional and engaging. Books designed to develop reading skills often end up feeling like work to read, while books designed to be interesting are often too difficult for beginning readers.

These books for beginning readers support phonics-based classroom instruction by including a high concentration of phonetically regular words, as well as the most commonly used sight words. However, the books are written using pictures and stories that make sense and promote both language and conceptual development. The books encourage questions, conversations and thoughtful engagement, aiming towards the new common core standards. Our intent is to produce books that kids want to read, think about, talk about and read again.
